“From start to finish you were so so helpful and nothing was too much to ask for at all! The day went so smoothly, the food was incredible, staff were so polite helpful and hardworking. We really did have the best day/night with you at The Nelson! I think something that stands out is definitely the hardworking and thoughtful team of yourself and Mia, you both have such an eye and attention to detail. On the wedding day I did not have to ask or stress about anything, Mia came up to me a few times politely just letting me know what was happening. She was really fantastic. And from booking to the actual day Jenna you were always so helpful, even when you were about to give birth (I can't actually cope how much of a superwoman you are)”.
